

Real-World Career Experiences
Exploring[®]

What is Exploring?

Exploring is Learning for Life's career education program for young men and women who are at least 14 (and have completed 8th grade) and not yet 21 years old. Adults are selected by the participating organization for involvement in the program. Color, race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, ethnic background, economic status and citizenship are not criteria for participation.

Exploring is all about helping young adults make a more informed decision about future careers and determine if a particular career is the right one for them. Typically, a young adult will either:

1) get involved, learn about a career, and decide to pursue it;
OR 2) learn enough about the career to determine it's not the right fit for them. It's better to learn as a young adult that a career is not for you, than after spending lots of money on an education only to THEN discover you don't like the career!

Exploring leaders volunteer their time to provide real-world career experiences for young adults. Exploring is not about lectures and slide shows – it's about gaining practical experience in a career field. The result is a program of activities that helps youth pursue their special interests, grow, and develop.

FIRE & EMERGENCY SERVICE

Fire & Emergency Service Exploring is a hands-on program that exposes participants to many career experiences, leadership opportunities, and community service activities. The primary goals of the program are to help young adults choose a career path within fire and emergency services and to challenge them to become responsible citizens of their communities and country.

Popular Exploring careers include:

- Firefighters
- Paramedics
- Emergency Technicians
- Ambulance Corps
- Search & Rescue Services
- Forest Firefighters

Explorers get to experience firsthand what it's like to be a volunteer or full-time Firefighter & Emergency Service Provider through firefighting training and ride-alongs during actual fire calls.

Explorers will:

- Learn important leadership skills
- Gain respect for firefighters
- Participate in hands-on projects to give them a real feel for whether this career is the right one for them
- Network with professionals who work in these careers daily – who use the latest technology, are aware of emerging trends and know what it takes to get into college for their specific career
- Learn about the educational requirements for a career in Fire & Emergency Service and receive tangible advice on steps they can take now to prepare and position for a successful career in the field of Fire & Emergency Service

Learn More. Experience More. Participate in Exploring.
